ETHEL CLAYTON IN PICTURE OF DOMESTIC LIFE

Ethel Clayton's latest Paramount picture, "Young Mrs. Winthrop," will be the attraction at the Butler Theatre today. It is an interesting story of young married life, telling of the estrangement of youthful husband and wife and their reconciliation under dramatic circumstances.

Ethel Clayton has the role of pleasure-loving Constance Winthrop, while Harrison Ford is the husband, immersed in business. Their varying interests lead them apart, the sole connecting link being their five-year-old child, Rosie. The husband becomes involved in an innocent, but shady looking affair with a Mrs. Dinbar, who is bent upon revenging herself upon Constance. The climax of the picture is the death of Rosie, which at first separates them still further, but later brings them together. Tomorrow, one of the most thrilling pictures ever produced will be screened, featuring Lieut. Locklear, who thrilled thousands by his spectacular changes from plane to plane. In this picture will be shown many of his daring feats. Included in this wonderful program will be shown Larry Semon, Chaplin's only rival in "The Grocery Clerk. Monday the great morality play "Everywoman."
